Fall for the Arts
Easley Community Band is under the direction of Greg Day. The band was started in 2015 and has grown to approximately 80 members. It is made up of primarily adult musicians from the local community, many of whom learned to play an instrument in one of our high school bands.

The Hired Help is a local band performing classic Motown, Blues and Beach music. Travis Owens, Robert Johnson, Russ Chapman, McKelvey Wilder and Chris Cash are all experienced musicians with a long resume of performances in the Upstate, including several Easley arts festivals, Pickens Amphitheatre, Sarlin Park in Liberty and the Reedy River Concert Series in downtown Greenville. Core members of the band have also played for a variety of musical shows in upstate theatres including Center Stage, Mill Town Players and Foothills Playhouse.

The Dusty Dads and The Unexpected are two student bands under the tutelage of Greg Alewine at the Johnny Mann Center for Commercial Music at Anderson University School of the Arts. They perform a wide variety of musical styles from classic rock to blues to alternative.
